

Mignon

(in French)

Opera in three acts by Ambroise Thomas

Libretto by Barbier and Carré

Based on Goethe's "Wilhelm Meister"

Conductor

Pietro Cimini

Stage Director

Armando Agnini

Chorus Master

Antonio Dell'Orefice

Choreographer

Adolph Bolm

CAST

Mignon, a girl stolen by Gypsies	Lucrezia Bori
Philine, an actress	Emily Hardy
Wilhelm, a student	Dino Borgioli
Lothario, an Italian nobleman	Ezio Pinza
Frederick, a young nobleman	Elinor Marlo
Laertes, an actor	Marek Windheim
Giarno, a Gypsy	Louis D'Angelo
Dancer	Eccleston Moran
	Betty Scoble Abbott
	Dimitri Romanoff

*Role debut †U.S. opera debut

PLACE AND TIME: Late 18th Century; Germany and Italy

Friday, December 7 1934, at 8:00 PM

Act I -- Courtyard of a German Inn

Act II, Scene 1 -- A Boudoir in Tieffenbach Castle

Act II, Scene 2 -- The Gardens of the Castle

Act III -- Count Lothario's Castle in Italy

Sponsors:

Notes: