

The San Francisco Opera gratefully acknowledges a generous contribution in 1967 from the San Francisco Opera Guild towards the production of "The Magic Flute"

Die Zauberflöte

(in English)

Opera in three acts by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart
Libretto by Emanuel Schikaneder and Carl Ludwig Gieseke
Translation by Ruth and Thomas Martin

Conductor

Charles Mackerras (see notes)†

Production

Paul Hager

Assisted by

Ghita Hager

Designer

Toni Businger

Davis L. West (resident designer)

Chorus Director

Stefan Minde

Costumes designed by

Toni Businger

Executed by

Goldstein & Co.

CAST

Tamino	Stuart Burrows
First Lady	Sheila Marks
Second Lady	Sylvia Anderson
Third Lady	Sheila Nadler
Papageno	Geraint Evans
Queen of the Night	Cristina Deutekom
First Spirit	Brooke Aird
Second Spirit	Scott Brookie
Third Spirit	Paul Hunt
Monostatos	Ragnar Ulfung
Pamina	Margaret Price †
The Speaker	Franz Mazura
Sarastro	David Ward
	Peter Lager (10/31)
First Priest	Raymond Nilsson
Second Priest	Allan Monk
Papagena	Shigemi Matsumoto
First armored man	Edward Herrnkind
Second armored man	Clifford Grant

*Role debut †U.S. opera debut

PLACE AND TIME: (not specified)

Wednesday, October 22 1969, at 8:00 PM
Saturday, October 25 1969, at 8:00 PM
Tuesday, October 28 1969, at 8:00 PM
Friday, October 31 1969, at 8:00 PM

Part I, Scene 1 -- Enchanted forest
Scene 2 -- Pamina's chamber
Scene 3 -- Portals of Nature, Wisdom, Reason
Scene 4 -- Sarastro's realm
Part II, Scene 1 -- Temple of Isis and Osiris
Scene 2 -- Place of silence
Scene 3 -- Pamina's chamber
Scene 4 -- Place of horror
Scene 5 -- Temple of Isis and Osiris
Scene 6 -- Place of silence
Part III, Scene 1 -- Sunrise
Scene 2 -- Fire and water
Scene 3 -- Enchanted forest
Scene 4 -- Subterranean caverns at night
Scene 5 -- Sarastro's court at midday

Sponsors:

Notes:

Although Charles Mackerras made his U.S. debut conducting this "Magic Flute" -- he did conduct in the States two years earlier, while on tour with the Hamburg Opera company.