The Sandman, the Sleep Fairy	- - - - -	May Sewall
The Dewman, the Dawn Fairy	- - - - -	Adeline Rivero
Peter, the father	- - - - -	Eugenio Sandrini
Conductor - - - - -		Karl Riedel

- Act I    Scene 1    House of the Broom-maker.
          Scene 2    In the Woods.
- Act II    Scene 1    In the Woods.
          Scene 2    The Witch's House.

The old German fairy-tale of the children who were lost in the woods. Falling into the hands of the Witch-who-eats-children, they not only outwitted and killed her, but brought back to life all her victims.

Highlights in the Music

The Prelude: A noble orchestral review of the main themes.

Act I    Scene 1    The children, playing, sing the old German folk-song, "Suse, liebe Suse" (Little Susie).
Orchestral Interlude: "Witch's Dance."

Act I    Scene 2    Gretel: "Ein Männlich steht im Walde" (A little man is in the wood).

Act II    Scene 1    Sandman: "Der kleine Sandman bin ich" (I am the Sleep-Fairy).
                  Hansel and Gretel: "Abendgebet" (Evening hymn—When at night I go to sleep, fourteen angels watch do keep.)

Scene 2    The Dewman, or Dawn-Fairy's Awakening Song.

Everything about Hansel and Gretel is charming to those who can feel their hearts warm toward the Grimm's fairy-tales of childhood.

THIS is the hey-day of big business—a maddening rush permeates our lives. Yet, when surrounded by music, that voice of romance, we recall the glorious glamour of days gone by. In the Baldwin Pianoforte there is that richness of tone, that true precision which lights the way to a clear projection of romantic imagery upon the mind's eye. ## When you cannot use your Season Tickets

If it should happen that you are prevented from using your season seat for any performance, do not let the ticket go to waste. There are many deserving music students who would appreciate the opportunity to attend the opera but who cannot afford to do so. The Women's Auxiliary of the San Francisco Opera Association has a list of such students by whom seats would be much appreciated. When you cannot use your ticket telephone to Miss Edith Livermore, PRospect 2624, and she will see that it gets into the hands of an appreciative guest.

MAIDEN VOYAGE, NOVEMBER 9

The S. S. Pennsylvania, largest ship ever built under the American flag, takes her place alongside the California and Virginia, linking California and New York in an ocean service as fine as will be found on any seas.

Not only in size is the new Pennsylvania noteworthy. In comfort, in luxury of appointment, in cuisine . . . you will find distinction. In designing this $7,000,000 liner no detail was overlooked to make her one of the most modern, palatial ships afloat. The Pennsylvania, like her sister ships, is electrically driven, operated by electricity, vibrationless. They are the largest electrically propelled commercial ships in the world.

A sailing every other week to and from New York via Panama Canal and gay, colorful Havana. You may take your car aboard, checking it as baggage. First cabin and tourist cabin accommodations.

Municipal Participation in Symphonic Music

The coming 1929-1930 season will mark the eighth year of Symphony concerts under municipal auspices at low admission prices. During this eight-year period many great works have been presented, including the Beethoven Ninth Symphony, Mahler's "Resurrection Symphony", the world premier of Ernest Bloch's prize rhapsody, "America", Handel's oratorio, "Messiah", Haydn's "Creation", and Verdi's "Requiem." Many of the world's greatest musicians have appeared as guest artists at these important events.

A great municipal chorus has been formed under the able directorship of Dr. Hans Leschke and this splendid body of trained voices is always in readiness to join with the orchestra in the presentation of oratorios and music festivals.

The Board of Supervisors has each year contributed a sum sufficient to cover the deficit incurred by the Summer Symphony Concerts, and this year will contribute substantially to the deficit sustained last season by the Musical Association's Winter Concerts. All this I believe to be a warranted investment in the artistic future of San Francisco.

JAMES B. MCSHEEHY,

Chairman, Auditorium Committee.

[ The Pacific Coast Opera Association takes this opportunity to extend its hearty congratulations to the San Francisco Opera Association upon the splendor of its present season and its high achievements of the past. ]

The initial season of the Pacific Opera Company last spring made music history for San Francisco. As a result there has been a widespread demand on the part of the public for the season here announced. All indications point to an enlarging future for this organization dedicated to the presentation of fine resident artists of the Pacific Coast in operas of high order at prices within the reach of all. However, in order to assure permanency in this work an increased number of founder members is desired. Realizing the unity of aim in the two organizations many founders of the San Francisco Opera Association are also founders of the Pacific Coast Opera Association. The purpose of this message is to invite more to join in this worthy effort. Write or telephone your request for membership forms or further information to the offices of the company, 605 City National Bank Building, 26 O'Farrell St. Phone Kearny 6044. Thomas C.
